b. Review of All Funerals progress on Center Cemetery (including pop up tab for veterans by military division and deployment)

c. 250 Project review – need for volunteers for North Cemetery

d. Ellis site (Center Cemetery #903) Implementation of rules from 2014 and perhaps earlier.

New Business:

Note that Dave Pinney from the Housing Authority is not available for tonight but will be here at the September meeting to describe the Phase 3 of Woodcrest and how it might impact the cemetery.

a. Concern forms:

b. Project 250 and beyond –

1. Mapping of New West (100 – 101 graves) Notation of military required.
2. Mapping of North Cemetery – Notation of military required. Paper map is available but unknown on accuracy. Known to not be up to date. (2012 burial.)
3. Old West mapping -. Notation of Military from 1700s to the present required. (Number of graves?) No map available. Consideration of volunteers doing the west end to look for Revolutionary War military. We have a list of names but no locations.
4. Consideration of another company to do these three cemeteries since we do not have any plots to sell and do not require online purchase agreement.

Adjournment:

Next meeting date: September 9th
