VII. New Business:

- a. All Sports Meeting – This was held tonight. Representatives from Somers Lacrosse, Little League & Softball were in attendance. Chris Boucher requested registration numbers, constitutions & by laws be submitted from each group if they haven't done so already. Chris also reviewed the evolving legislation at the state level involving concussion protocol & urged each group to follow their organizations current rules regarding concussion protocol & return to play. It was suggested by the Rec board that we incorporate this into the field use policy and permit applications. This will be reviewed again by the Board at a later meeting.

All organizations were asked to check back with Chris regarding the official date for the fields to be opened for practice & games due to the weather we've had so far this spring.
