

The State Department of Motor Vehicles will be closing down different branches for a short time in order to upgrade Computer Systems.

DMV Branch Offices Will Alternate Shutdowns Beginning Tuesday, February 17.

The following is the closing schedule:

- 2/17 – 2/20 Bridgeport, Stamford and Norwalk offices, and the Stamford photo license center.
- 2/24 – 2/27 New Britain and Enfield offices
- 3/3 – 3/6 Willimantic, Putnam and Norwich offices
- 3/10 – 3/13 Waterbury, Winsted and Danbury offices
- 3/17 – 3/20 Hamden and Old Saybrook offices
- 3/24 – 3/27 Wethersfield office
- Note: The offices will have their normal half-day Saturday operations.

While two offices will close each week, one of them will continue to handle only learner's permit test appointments.

Learner's Permits are one of the highest-in-demand services DMV offers.

Customers are advised to check the agency website (ct.gov/dmv) for any updates before going to a branch office.

With these office closings, DMV is advising customers to:

- Check real-time online wait times at ct.gov/dmv or through a download of DMV's app at ct.gov/dmv/apps
- Don't wait to renew. Do it now.
- Renew vehicle registrations by mail or online if your renewal indicates you are eligible.
- Go to the nearest AAA office for license renewals to avoid lines. ct.gov/dmv/aaa
