

STOP putting your MILITARY BENEFITS at arm's length Call Somers Department of Veterans Affairs NOW

ATTENTION ALL MILITARY VETERANS

Discover and acquire your earned military benefits in a military culture-friendly atmosphere! Make an appointment now!

The Somers Department of Veterans Affairs (SDVA) is staffed by retired, active-duty veterans who are familiar with the military culture and the Veterans Administration. The staff works closely with leadership in the Connecticut Department of Veterans Affairs to learn the needs of our veterans and their family members. Your benefits education is personally tailored to your situation and necessary actions are taken before you leave our office to help improve the quality of your life and to help make your connections to services easier.

You'll most likely make some new acquaintances/friends who share commonalities and can relate to you in a way you may never have thought you "missed" until now. Call us today to make an appointment and we will be sure to make you feel welcome and at home.

Testimonies from some of our veterans:

"All my questions about VA benefits and who to contact for help with filing an appeal were answered in full." - Bruce

"The staff is phenomenal, they know their business, and they're there to help." - Dave

"I was so happy to come across the office in Somers. I suspect it would have been a real pain in the rear trying to get done what they did for me in any other office. Thank you, Town of Somers, for providing this service to military veterans." - Steve

"The competence, knowledge, enthusiasm, and dedication to service by the staff was outstanding. They were very pleasant people to work with." - Richard
